

CITIZEN CHARTER OF
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF FOREIGN TRADE
(Deemed to be University)

The Institute

The Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT) was established in 1963 by the Government of India with the objective of strengthening the country's external trade sector through development of human resources; generating, analysing and disseminating trade data; conducting research and providing consultancy services. The Institute has been the pioneer in imparting training in foreign trade management in the country and undertaking research and consultancy in various areas of international business. It is ranked consistently amongst the leading Business Institutions of the country. The Institute is also a major think tank and advises the Government of India on policy matters relating to foreign trade and commerce. The Institute was awarded the status of Deemed University in May 2002 by University Grants Commission (UGC) enabling it to award degrees and start its own doctoral programme. On the basis of review by the Expert Committee constituted by UGC, IIFT was granted "Deemed University" status on a permanent basis in February, 2012. It has been awarded Grade 'A+' with overall by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC).
