

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF FOREIGN TRADE

REQUIRES

Field Investigator

The Undersigned is awarded a Project on “A comprehensive study of socioeconomic and sustainability factors influencing the implementation of PM Surya Ghar: Solar Bijli Yojna in rural areas of South Bihar” by Indian Council of Social Science and Research (ICSSR), Ministry of HRD, Government of India for which four field investigators are required.

Principal Investigator & Co-investigators:

Prof. Md Tanweer Ahmad, Quantitative Technique Division, IIFT, New Delhi (PI)

Co-investigators

- (1) Prof. Mohd Irfan, DMSIE, IIT (ISM) Dhanbad. (2) Prof. C. Ganeshkumar, University of Hyderabad. (3) Prof. Sarvendra Yadav, Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology, H.N.B. Garhwal University Srinagar, Uttarakhand

Tenure of Contract: 3 months, (non-extendable).

Essential Qualification:

The candidates should be Post Graduate in any Social Science Discipline with minimum 55 percent marks.

Desirable Qualification:

Preferably prior field research experience in data collection.

Age and Relaxation (if any):

Preferably below 35 years (Relaxation as per GoI norms)

Remuneration:

Rs. 20,000/- per month (Consolidated)

Candidate should have:

The field investigator will be responsible for data collection through primary surveys, and other tasks associated with the project or as asked by the investigators to ensure its smooth execution.

The candidate would be expected to work hard and travel at short notice.

Interested candidate having above qualification / experience may apply online through the link given below along with names of two references latest by October 23, 2025.

Link - https://docs.iift.ac.in/recruit/solo.asp?jcode=FI_Oct25

Please Note: Selected candidates will be required to work in the rural regions of South Bihar

Dr. Asheesh Pandey,

Professor & Head Research Division, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, B- 21, IIFT Bhawan, Qutab Institutional Area, New Delhi – 110016. Email: asheesh@iift.edu
