Disclaimer

1. The candidature of all shortlisted candidates is purely provisional and is subject to verification of eligibility, original documents, and fulfillment of all conditions prescribed in the advertisement.
2. Candidates claiming reservation under any category (SC/ST/OBC-NCL/EWS/PwBD, etc.) must produce valid certificates in the prescribed format issued by the competent authority under the Government of India (Central Government), as applicable. Certificates issued in formats prescribed exclusively by State Governments, or certificates not conforming to the Government of India guidelines, shall not be accepted for claiming reservation benefits.
3. Failure to produce the requisite certificates/documents in the prescribed Central Government format at the time of document verification/interview may result in cancellation of candidature or denial of reservation benefits, as applicable.
4. Candidates whose final year/semester result is awaited are eligible to appear for the Personal Interview. However, if selected, their admission will be provisional, subject to their fulfilling the prescribed eligibility criteria. They must submit their final result immediately after its declaration. If they fail to meet the prescribed eligibility criteria or do not submit their final result by 15 December 2026, their provisional admission shall stand cancelled automatically.
